

MAKING A DIFFERENCE
IN CHARLOTTE
ONE CAUSE
AT A TIME

November 2, 2107

Celebration Dinner Silent Auction Now Open

Even If You're Not Attending, You Can Bid On Some Great Items!

Community Matters will hold its final fundraising event of the year -- the 2017 Celebration Dinner -- on Monday, Nov. 6 at the Club at Longview. There's still time to buy a ticket by visiting <http://cm17.gesture.com>.

But even if you don't attend the event, you can still take part in the silent auction, which is open to employees of all member companies. And the auction site is available now!

If you're interested in bidding, visit <http://cm17.gesture.com> and click on "View Items." Bidding runs until 8:30 p.m. Monday evening, Nov. 6, with all proceeds going to our partnership with Charlotte Rescue Mission. Good Luck!

And thanks to our gold and silver table sponsors for this year's dinner. Gold sponsors are AmWINS and Arrowpoint Capital. Silver sponsors are CNA, Marsh & McLennan Agency and Marsh Inc., Travelers and UnitedHealthcare.

Party With a Purpose Raises $5,390

Thanks to everyone who came to this year's Party With a Purpose, held in a new party space between SouthBound Restaurant and Mac's Speed Shop in Charlotte's South End. The beer was great, the food was delicious and the Holdouts were rocking! But most important, we raised an impressive $5,390 for our partnership with Charlotte Rescue Mission.

We also held our annual cornhole tournament. Congratulations go to Aon Hewitt's Matt Doss and Mercer's Garo Aghjayan for taking the first prize of Hornets tickets. Good job, guys!

Special thanks to Palmer & Cay's Scott Mercer for organizing the event and AIG for serving as sponsor.

For additional photos from the party, check out our Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/communitymatterscharlotte>

Lockton Volunteers at Both CRM Campuses

Thanks to our friends at Lockton's Charlotte office who recently prepared and served lunches at both Charlotte Rescue Mission campuses -- the Rebound men's campus in uptown Charlotte and the Dove's Nest women's campus on West Blvd. They had a great time -- and say they're ready to pay a return visit very soon!

If you're interested in volunteering at either Dove's Nest or Rebound, visit the volunteer page on the Community Matters website at <http://www.communitymatterscharlotte.org/volunteer.html>. If you have any questions, contact Christy Baker at christy.baker@charlotterescuemission.org. Please be sure to identify yourself with the Community Matters group in the online system so that we can capture your volunteer hours. And send us your photos so we can feature you in a future newsletter!

Lockton at Rebound...

MAKING A DIFFERENCE
IN CHARLOTTE
ONE CAUSE
AT A TIME

Celebration Dinner Silent Auction Now Open

Even If You're Not Attending, You Can Bid On Some Great Items!

Community Matters will hold its final fundraising event of the year -- the 2017 Celebration Dinner -- on Monday, Nov. 6 at the Club at Longview. There's still time to buy a ticket by visiting <http://cm17.gesture.com>.

But even if you don't attend the event, you can still take part in the silent auction, which is open to employees of all member companies. And the auction site is available now!

If you're interested in bidding, visit <http://cm17.gesture.com> and click on "View Items." Bidding runs until 8:30 p.m. Monday evening, Nov. 6, with all proceeds going to our partnership with Charlotte Rescue Mission. Good Luck!

And thanks to our gold and silver table sponsors for this year's dinner. Gold sponsors are AmWINS and Arrowpoint Capital. Silver sponsors are CNA, Marsh & McLennan Agency and Marsh Inc., Travelers and UnitedHealthcare.

Party With a Purpose Raises $5,390

Thanks to everyone who came to this year's Party With a Purpose, held in a new party space between SouthBound Restaurant and Mac's Speed Shop in Charlotte's South End. The beer was great, the food was delicious and the Holdouts were rocking! But most important, we raised an impressive $5,390 for our partnership with Charlotte Rescue Mission.

We also held our annual cornhole tournament. Congratulations go to Aon Hewitt's Matt Doss and Mercer's Garo Aghjayan for taking the first prize of Hornets tickets. Good job, guys!

Special thanks to Palmer & Cay's Scott Mercer for organizing the event and AIG for serving as sponsor.

For additional photos from the party, check out our Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/communitymatterscharlotte>

Lockton Volunteers at Both CRM Campuses

Thanks to our friends at Lockton's Charlotte office who recently prepared and served lunches at both Charlotte Rescue Mission campuses -- the Rebound men's campus in uptown Charlotte and the Dove's Nest women's campus on West Blvd. They had a great time -- and say they're ready to pay a return visit very soon!

If you're interested in volunteering at either Dove's Nest or Rebound, visit the volunteer page on the Community Matters website at <http://www.communitymatterscharlotte.org/volunteer.html>. If you have any questions, contact Christy Baker at christy.baker@charlotterescuemission.org. Please be sure to identify yourself with the Community Matters group in the online system so that we can capture your volunteer hours. And send us your photos so we can feature you in a future newsletter!

Lockton at Rebound